

English 12 Sports and Adventure Literature Summer Reading Instructions

All students taking English 12 Sports and Adventure literature are required to read at least two (2) of the suggested books from the FCASD Suggested Reading List. Students will be assessed on their knowledge and understanding of their readings in a timed, tiered, formal writing piece during the opening weeks of the course. Students will be asked to make specific references to both works that they have read.